DEATH OF LADY CURZON.

SEQUEL TO LAST ILLNESS:

LONDON, July 18. Lody Curzon is dead. She had been suffering from complications, a sequel to her illness of two years ago.

(Eviter)

Ing. toon comprises. The service to the three signs of two years ago.

(Exiter.)

Lady Carzon of Kodleston (nee Mary Victoria Leiter) was born at Chicago, and the daughter of the late L. Z. Leiter, a platorax of that oity. Her great talents and beauty, which had already made be one of the most popular debutantes in Washington accisty in 1891, etided to the interest excited by the annoncement of her engagement to the Hoo. G. N. Curson, and her marriage to him in 1899, in which year her husband became Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs. In 1899 she accompanied her husband toolida. As wife of the Viceroy among a certain section of Aciglo-Indian officials, both military and civil. That she succeeded in a coarson of the Wiceroy among a certain section of Aciglo-Indian officials, both military and civil. That she succeeded in overcoming them was a great testimony to berability and personal charzo. She fallilled the ourseros social daties of her josition with remarkable tact and gracioneness, and the nearest of her service with the fall that can be succeeded a widespread acpression of sympathy. General regret will be felt at her death, and not least to Gairo, where she was with her husband the guest of Lord and Lady Cromer as lately as the 29th November last.

ANCIENT EGYPTIAN ART AT KINGS COLLEGE:

The old idea that it was only the Ge and the French who understood the art of archivological exploration will certainly be dispalled from the mind of any lover of the Orient who may visit the splendid collection of objects now exhibited by the Egypt Explora of objects now exhibited by the Egypt Emplora-tion Fund at King's College. Visitors to Egypt must all be acquained with the famous temple of Hathor, at Déir el Bahari, near Thebos, the magnificant mosument of the pride of Queen Hatshapso, the Elizabeth of Egypt. For intees years that learned archaeologist and shooks, M. Edonard Naville, D.C.L., has continued to labour in clearing the hoge "edition, restoring fallen sculptures to sheir places, and copying couptures and incomplices." The great teacher of the eighteenth dynasty, built about 1500 at , has been rescond from the roin of const-rier, and now stands as one of the finest of the Egyptian temples.

is c, has been rescond from the roin of centeries, and now stands as one of the fices of the Egyptian temples.

In 1903 the discotor commenced work on what at first appeared to be rebbish heaps, but the magio touch of the space brought to light a far older temple built by Mestuheten, a king of the deement dynasty, about $600 n.c., and it is obiefly from this edifice that the beastiful works of art which asy now exhibited have been derived. The 'templa, like most of those in the Thebos, was below most of those in the Thebos, was below most of those in the Thebos, was his morturary chapel of the king, and was built, round a pyramidical structure, benesth which was not succeeded by the content of the structure was the subject of the king, and was built, round a pyramidical structure, benesth which was namebalatory adorated with beachight soulpteres, richly coloured. On the other side of the vanders were found the tombe of the priestesses of Hathor, who appear to have formed the royal harm, for they all bear "the title of favooritie of the king." These tombs and the shrines were richly decorated, as were also the stone coffins of the ladies; and many of the best pieces of work here a schildred come from these tombs. Leastly, there was a colonnade decorated with nones of war and the chasse.

RARLY PAINTINGS AND SOULPPURES.

RABLY PAINTINGS AND SCULPTURES ERRLY PAINTINGS AND SCULPTURES
These sculptures and paintings restore to us a long-lost and, it may be said, unexpected chapter in Egyptian art. It was thought that the fine work of the pyramid age had fallow and, what is more important, we ware as let the acceptaint the name of the master who directed acceptaint the name of the master who directed and no doubt produced much of it. There flourished in the region of Mentabeten a certain and no doubt produced much of it. There flourished in the region of Mentubeles a certain sculptor named Mertines, who tells us on his tombetone that "he was a matter of artistic skill, able to portray the human form and the morements of the limbs," and he was succeeded by his quality clears cano., Those than are now, after nearly four thousand years, submitted to our critical inspection. The protraits of the king on the first table and undoubted, and so is that of the queen, who shows a distinctly Ethiopian type of face; so are the family groups of the king, the queen, or the favorities. A wonderful price of finished work is a group with the Queen Asshalts and the groups of the king, the queen, or the Lavousites. A wonderful piece of finished work is a group with the Queen Asshalt and the king wearing the white crown, which is represented as made of fine gress-plating with the bands and crown of gold. The painted earcophagus of the priestose Kenstit, a negress, interesting because of the unfinished parts of the work, which showed how the artists drew out the design before certified the religious and costumes are presenting the wars against the Nomade of Sinai and Syria. The types of face are most perfect, while the weapons and costumes are a treasure to the archelogist. A preity little spose represents a root to be succeeded to the second of the control of the sould be succeeded to the second of the second of the soulther of a man gathering papture and tying it into bundles. These Egyptian artists were equally close students of sained life, and there is great power in a desert hunting score and a touch of humour in the for robbing the nest of a bird from which the mother has flown away. A crocodile actabling a fish, and the somewhat combrous bippopotami are not worse works of art than those of many modern artists. All of these are correctly coloured.

The Money Market.

In financial and monetary circles the past week has been one of higher interact than the next such that we need to see the past of the financial and monetary circles as Lord Goeshoe, the highest financial activity living, has in a powerful speech (on the occasion of the Stational Discount Company, one of the greatest as well as the oldest discount businesses in the world) backed up his own old and Mr. Asquirt's new appeal, for larger gold reserves by the Bank and the bankers' This appeal, which has been repeatedly made ever since Mr. Begabot's "Lombard Street" pointed out the danger of the present system, can no langer be disregarded. The public, indeed, have a right to insist that a fair proportion of their free disposits with the Bank should go to safe-grand-the general position, and that the bankers are the second on the correction of trade, is economically unsound, had the policy pursued by other countries in looking up hoge quantities of gold is one to be avoided, but the reserves kept by the banks would doorseas the sum of the contribution of trade, is economically unsound, had the policy pursued by other countries in looking up hoge quantities of gold is one to be avoided, but the reserves should be supple. Of course, any further gold reserves kept by the banks would doorseas the amount of loanship expital available for the market, and might cause stringeopo for some time. Just a present would decrease up amount of loanson outputs available for the market, and might cause stringency for some time. Just at present there seems to by no fear of dear money of there seems to be no fear of dear money as long as the United States Treasury will look after the New York market. By to-day's cables, we are assured on this point by the statements made by the Secretary of the

An important letter appears to-day in the Times" from Sir Edward Law on the subject of the present position of values of securities, pointing out the probable cause of the extranationary depression of stocks. It is a pity

The strength of the gilt-edged market, in spite of the depression caused by the settlement, has been the gratifying factors of the week. The price of Concols has been over 58, and the closing quotation to night, 371f, shows an advance on the week of 6, Other Government Ponds are higher, the new Irish Land Loan being now firm at par.

The disappearance of the bear element caused the international market to firm up at the beginning of the weak, the improvement is reflected in the steadiness of Russian bonds. The spervourses that has since dominated the House has, however, brought about a relaçue, said yenterday the Enuz-were no better than 70 %. They close the sight at 70 % and the New Loan statisticount. It is assistantly to note that the anxiety canced by Sir Edward Grey 's speech regarding the condition or Bergish has now evaporated, and Repristin Unified have advanced $16 tills, and the Repristan Presistance Red $10 102. Japanese have been irragular. The Second elemin of 4 $1/6 Mers lost about $24 and the Power $1/6 Mers lost about $24 and the Power $1/6 Mers lost about $24 and the Power $1/6 Mers lost about $26 Mers lost $26 Mers lost about $26 Mers lost The Second series of 4 and the Pours | but n

Home Ralis.

The home railway market also was the victim of yesterday's attack of nerves, for previously the tone had been firm. through the amount of business transacted wis naturally limited. Nearly all the shares jud advanced, but in

Nearly all the shares had advanced, but in most oases the improvement has now been lost; though two or three lines yearday gained from a to a point, while Gity and South London were no least than 1/4 higher.

The complete traffic returns for the half-year just ended show a total increase for the ten chief lines amounting to £1.148,000, the only decrease being that of the London, Brighton, and South Coast, which amounts to £2,000. The bull of the gains are from the goods traffin, these being a natural corollary of the splendid presperity of the trade of the country. There are decreases in the passenger traffic of the Grant Eastern made up the fadicit by their goods traffic horses, while the Brighton line wipe of £3,000 of their lost from the same line wipe off £8,900 of their loss fr source.

The new half-year has been inaugurated with a batch of very satisfactory traffic gains, the North Estatura and Great Western being £14,000 and £10,000 to the good, while several of the other lines record increases of £5,000 to £9,700.

The American market has been unsteady and yesterday prices fell nearly all-round there being several losses of 1½; while Union New York Central, and Readings declined 2; asew Lork Central, and Rasdings declined 94, 94, and 24 respectively. Chicago Milwackes, which bitherto had been well-upperted, fall one point, and have lost $\frac{1}{2}$ today, the share oloring $\frac{3}{2}$ up on the week. The latest prices to night show a frameher of further small declines in this market.

An important latter appears to-day in the Thermal from Sir Edward Law on the subject of the present position of values of securities, pointing out the probable oams of the extrict of the present position of values of securities, pointing out the probable oams of securities, pointing out the probable oams of the extrict pointing out the probable oams of the extraction of the sective head of this important Bank, as such an authority would be of great earth of the calibra in finance would be as allot of the Government by the solvice he would be able to give Sit Edward tones the main cause of the depression to the fluctuations of Consols and similar securities which have removed these from their former position as "Liquid Registration" of reserves to 48 as against 42 and the event of the evariable folds. At the same time, as the event of the evariable folds, at the same time, as suming America will look after hersial, there seems no reason why the depands should second the present supply.
